BACKGROUND (NAHUM). AUTHOR: Nahum...DATE WRITTEN: 650 BCE

- NAHUM. His name means “consolation!” Nothing else is known of him except that he came from a city called Elkosh, which was near Capernaum.
- AUDIENCE. His prophetic message against Nineveh as preached to Judah (or the Israelite Southern Kingdom, who capital was Jerusalem), since the Northern Kingdom called Israel had already been taken captive by the Assyrian Empire in 722 BC.
- THEME. His strong message was that Nineveh would be destroyed! In fact, nearly every verse from chapter 1:15 -to- chapter 3:19 describes that event—which actually took place in 612 BC.
- THE ISSUE. The Ninevites or Assyrians had converted from their evil ways through the preaching of the Prophet Jonah more than 100-years before Nahum preached his prophecy. Unfortunately, the ancient Ninevites had not transmitted their knowledge of the true God to their children. Thus, this new generation of Ninevites reverted back to their cruel and heathen practices. And in chapter 3:1-4, Nahum briefly describes the Ninevite’s wickedness.
- EXAMPLE. In 722 BC, they destroyed Samaria, which was the capital of the Israelite Northern Kingdom (called Israel), and also in 701 BC they nearly captured Jerusalem, which was the capital of the Israelite Southern Kingdom (called Judah).
- PUNISHMENT. Nahum starts with a magnificent description of God’s character. He goes on to describe the great wickedness of the Ninevites (Assyrians) against the two Israelite nations. Then Nahum prophesied that God had to punish and destroy such an apostate people.
- ENCOURAGEMENT. Nahum’s prophecy was also a source of comfort to the Israelites of the Southern Kingdom (Judah). For he revealed that God would punish their great enemy for their sins against God’s people—their cousins the Israelites of the Northern Kingdom (Israel).

NATION	ISRAEL	ASSYRIA	JUDAH
CAPITAL	SAMARIA	NINEVEH	JERUSALEM
NAME	NORTHERN ISRAELITES	ASSYRIANS	SOUTHERN ISRAELITES

CHAPTER_1 (NAHUM). GOD’S WRATH ON HIS ENEMIES. ¹The burden against Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite. ²God is jealous, and the Lord avenges. The Lord avenges and is furious. The Lord will take vengeance on his adversaries. And he reserves wrath for his enemies. ³The Lord is slow to anger and great in power. And he will not at all acquit the wicked. The Lord has his way in the whirlwind and in the storm. And the clouds are the dust of his feet. ⁴He rebukes the sea and makes it dry; and dries up all the rivers. Bashan and Carmel wither, and the flower of Lebanon wilts. ⁵The mountains quake before him. The hills melt, and the earth heaves at His presence—YES, the world and all who dwell in it! ⁶Who can stand before His indignation? And who can endure the fierceness of His anger? For his fury is poured out like fire, And the rocks are thrown down by him. ⁷The Lord is good, and a stronghold in the day of trouble. He knows those who trust in Him. ⁸But with an overflowing flood he will make an utter end of its place, and darkness will pursue his enemies. ⁹What do you conspire against the Lord? He will make an utter end of it. Affliction will not rise-up a second time. ¹⁰For while tangled like thorns, and while drunken like drunkards, they shall be devoured like stubble fully dried. ¹¹From you comes forth one who plots evil against the Lord. A wicked counselor. ¹²Thus says the Lord, “Though they are safe, and likewise many, yet in this manner they will be cut down when he passes through. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more. ¹³*For now I will break off his yoke from you; and burst your bonds apart.”* ¹⁴The Lord has given a command concerning you, “Your name shall be perpetuated no longer. Out of the house of your gods I will cut off the carved image and the molded image. I will dig your grave. For you are vile.” ¹⁵Behold, on the mountains the feet of him who brings good tidings, who proclaims peace! O Judah, keep your appointed feasts, Perform your vows. For the wicked one shall no more pass through you, he is utterly cut off!

CHAPTER 3 (NAHUM). THE WOE OF NINEVEH. ¹Woe to the bloody city! It is all full of lies and robbery. Its victim never departs. ²The noise of a whip and the noise of rattling wheels, of galloping horses, of clattering chariots! ³Horsemen charge with bright sword and glittering spear. There is a multitude of slain. A great number of bodies. Countless corpses—they stumble over the corpses—⁴because of the multitude of harlotries of the seductive harlot, the mistress of sorceries. Who sells nations through her harlotries, and families through her sorceries. ⁵*“Behold, I am against you,”* says the LORD of hosts. “I will lift your skirts over your face. I will show the nations your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame. I will cast abominable filth upon you, and make you vile, and make you a spectacle. I will cast abominable filth upon you, and make you vile, and make you a spectacle. I will cast abominable filth upon you, and make you vile, and make you a spectacle. I will cast abominable filth upon you, and make you vile, and make you a spectacle.” ⁶*I will cast abominable filth upon you, and make you vile, and make you a spectacle. I will cast abominable filth upon you, and make you vile, and make you a spectacle. I will cast abominable filth upon you, and make you vile, and make you a spectacle. I will cast abominable filth upon you, and make you vile, and make you a spectacle.”* ⁷*It shall come to pass that all who look upon you will flee from you, and say, ‘Nineveh is laid waste! Who will bemoan her?’ Where shall I seek comforters for you?”* ⁸Are you better than No Amon that was situated by the river, that had the waters around her. Whose rampart was the sea. Whose wall was the sea? ⁹Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was boundless. Put and Lubim were your helpers. ¹⁰Yet she was carried away. She went into captivity. Her young children also were dashed to pieces at the head of every street. They cast lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains. ¹¹You also will be drunk. You will be hidden. You also will seek refuge from the enemy. ¹²All your strongholds are fig trees with ripened fig. If they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater. ¹³Surely, your people in your midst are women! The gates of your land are wide open for your enemies. Fire shall devour the bars of your gates. ¹⁴Draw your water for the siege! Fortify your strongholds! Go into the clay and tread the mortar! Make strong the brick kiln! ¹⁵There the fire will devour you. The sword will cut you off. It will eat you up like a locust. Make yourself many—like the locust! Make yourself many—like the swarming locusts! ¹⁶You have multiplied your merchants more than the stars of heaven. The locust plunders and flies away. ¹⁷Your commanders are like swarming locusts, and your generals like great grasshoppers. Which camp in the hedges on a cold day. When the sun rises they flee away, and the place where they are is not known. ¹⁸Your shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria. Your nobles rest in the dust. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and no one gathers them. ¹⁹Your injury has no healing, your wound is severe. All who hear news of you will clap their hands over you. For upon whom has not your wickedness passed continually?
